TO-DAY'S CABLES.

(Refer to Service to the China Mail.)

RUSSIAN TREATY.

INCIDENT CLOSED.

THE POWERS' DECISION.

Genoa, April 23.
Representatives of the ten powers who signed the note of protest to Germany met this morning and sent the President of the German delegation a note reserving for their governments the right to declare null and void any clauses in the Russo-German treaty which may be recognised as contrary to existing treaties and declaring the incident may now be regarded as closed.

FANCIFUL GERMAN STATEMENTS.

LATER.
The ten powers' note declares that there is not a shadow of justification for the statement that the Germans were forced to conclude a separate agreement with Russia by refusal of the convening powers to consider the difficulties which the proposals of the London experts would have created for Germany.

The German delegation members when they conferred with the delegations of the convening powers never suggested that the London proposals afforded no basis for discussion in conference and that the German delegation was about to conclude a separate treaty with Russia.

The allegation that informal discussions with Russians on the subject of recognition of debt, exposed the Germans to the risk of being confronted with a scheme unacceptable to Germany was equally unfounded as no such scheme had been accepted by the conference without fullest discussion by the committees on which Germany was represented equally with the other powers.

NOISY FRENCH PRESS.

Paris, April 23.
The anti-conference views of the newspapers are daily increasing in bitterness. The majority to day strongly favour immediate French withdrawal from Genoa but some, like the Tribune, opine that the conference will end in a fiasco whether France quits or stays and therefore advise remaining in order to avoid blame for being the first to leave.

THE DOLLAR.

To-day's closing rate 2/6 1/16.
To-day's opening rate 2/6 1/16.

RUSHMAN TREATY.

RAPALLO, April 23.

At a meeting of the Little Entente delegates Poland endeavoured to find a via media on account of the difficulty in which she is placed owing to the conflicting views of the British and Italians on the one hand and the French and Belgians on the other. She decided to press France not to contribute to the breaking up of the conference.

IRISH ARMY SPLIT.

MILITARY AGREEMENT REACHED.

CESSATION OF HOSTILITIES.

LONDON, April 24.

The Westminster Gazette's Dublin correspondent understands authoritatively that an agreement has been reached between the military leaders of the Republican and Free State sections of the Irish Army for cessation of hostilities. The agreement is purely military and does not affect the political issue. The people will be left free to pronounce upon the treaty.

OIL ON TROUBLED OIL.

AMICABLE AGREEMENTS.

LONDON, April 23.

Sir John Cadman, Consulting Petroleum Adviser to the Government, has returned from America. Interviewed, he said that he had explained to Americans that Britain was anxious to see oil developed everywhere in the world, no matter by what nation. As a result a great deal of misunderstanding had been cleared up. He hoped that past oil troubles had practically ended. The Standard and Anglo-Persian oil companies had reached a very amicable agreement in connection with North Persia and this was only awaiting the Persian Government's ratification.

LORD LEOPOLD MOUNTBATTEN'S LEAVE.

LONDON, April 24.
The Court will wear mourning for Lord Leopold Mountbatten for a fortnight.

"STAY AWAY."

CHIEF JUSTICE'S ADVICE TO UNDESIRABLES.

A SEVERE SENTENCE.

"It would be a very good thing," remarked the Chief Justice (Sir William Rees Davies) to a prisoner brought before him for sentence at the Criminal Court to day, "if men of your class were to stay out of this Colony. We don't want you here at all."

The prisoner was a Chinese named Tsang Ting who had pleaded guilty to a charge which alleged him to have been in possession, without lawful authority, of a fully-loaded six chambered revolver.

Relating the circumstances which had led to the prisoner's appearance in the dock, Mr. A. Dyer Ball, who prosecuted for the Crown, said that at Yau-mat on the evening of March 11 Sergeant Doring heard a commotion going on in Tai Nam Street, he came upon the prisoner who was being held by two Chinese. When the Sergeant went to search him the prisoner resisted violently and the revolver was found in a pocket of the underneath one of three coats he was wearing. Mr. Dyer Ball asserted that at that time a concerted attempt was being made to commit a violent crime. Parties of men were moving about and one man fired shots at a Chinese constable who pursued him. He suggested that the prisoner was connected with an armed gang.

In reply to the Judge, the prisoner said he bought the revolver in Kowloon City. He did not know the laws of Hong Kong so he had not applied for a licence. He came here with a cargo boat carrying fire wood and wanted to take the revolver back to his own country to protect his house.

Addressing the Attorney General (the Hon. Mr. J. H. Kemp K. C.) the Chief Justice observed that this was the first case he had had to deal with under the Amending Ordinance of 1919 which gave magistrates power,

CORRESPONDENCE.

"A MOST INHUMAN PRACTICE."

(To the Editor of the "China Mail.")

Dear Sir,—I should be interested if any of your readers could enlighten me as to the object of the Police Regulation to the effect that dogs found loose in the streets after a certain hour at night are liable to be destroyed, and if any mode is laid down for their destruction.

I am asking this because last night I was the unhappy witness of a case of the shooting of a dog by a Police Officer with a shot-gun. It appears to me a most inhuman practice. The Officer fired from a range of fifteen yards. The dog, which made its escape, was found some sixty yards away, terribly cut up but still alive; a second shot from a distance of two yards failed to put the animal out of its agony; the third shot probably achieved its purpose.

I am also writing to the S.P.C.A. in hopes that they will be able to do something in the matter.

I am,
Yours faithfully,
A RESIDENT.
Hongkong April 21.

If they thought proper, on the application of the C.S.P., to commit the case for trial before the Supreme Court which was given power to pass a very heavy sentence.

"Well it is perfectly clear that the object of the amending section, as I take it, must be to give a magistrate power in cases where it is believed that the prisoner possessed of arms is not merely innocently possessed of arms but was possessed of arms probably with the object of committing a crime. I can say this that each case must depend on the circumstances arising. It is quite impossible to lay down any general rule but each case must depend on the circumstances surrounding it. In this particular case there are circumstances which absolutely and amply justify the learned magistrate in sending it for trial to this Court."

Describing the prisoner's explanation as "wholly inadequate" His Honour said he would pass upon him a severe sentence of six years with hard labour which he hoped would be a deterrent.

BITS OF BRICK.

AND DIRTY FINGERNAILS.

QUEER ARSON CHARGE.

If Lam San had kept his finger nails clean he might not have had to face the acting Puisne Judge (Mr. J. R. Wood) and a jury at the Criminal Court this morning on five counts of arson.

From the outline of the Crown case given by the Attorney General (the Hon. Mr. J. H. Kemp K. C.) it appeared that Lam San had a medicine shop at 381 Queen's Road West. His shop contents were insured for $2,500 but according to a valuation made by Mr. L. E. Lamont the stock, furniture and fittings were not, at a liberal estimate, worth more than a thousand dollars.

The shop next door—number 383—is a wine and spirit shop. There was a small fire there in the early morning of February 19 but the fire put it out with some water. Afterwards it was noticed that there was a jar of kerosene, some baskets and some joss paper on the stairs. That was suspicious and the police were told about it. Sub-Inspector Fallon arrived to make investigations and discovered traces of gunpowder on the steps.

Soon after the fire had been put a small boy sleeping on the premises heard a queer tapping sound but he was tired and went off to slumber again until he was awakened by some pieces of brick raining down on him. That led to a further discovery that a hole had been chipped in the partition wall from the house next door, number 381. Inspector Kent came along to take over the case from Sub-Inspector Fallon and he happened to notice that Lam San had traces of some dark substances under his finger nails. Some of it was scraped out and found to be a mixture of gunpowder and brickdust so Lam San was arrested. A further clue was later discovered in the shape of a jar containing a mixture of sulphur, saltpetre and gunpowder.

Mr. Kemp accepted most of the morning with his opening address and the hearing was then adjourned until after 11 a.m. to give the Court and jury an opportunity of looking over the premises.

ASAHI BEER*SWINDLER'S APPEAL

BRITISH JUDGE ON FRIVOLOUS CASES.

In the Court of Criminal Appeal
the application was heard of Thomas Rothwell, alias Marmaduke Miller, for leave to appeal against a conviction at the London Sessions for conspiracy to defraud and false pretences, and a sentence of three years' penal servitude.

Mr. Justice Avey said that the prisoner was "found guilty of 'long firm' frauds. With another man named Green he obtained credit from different firms, and Green gave references from other firms which were really himself, so that when a firm wrote for references to one of the firms given as a reference
Green himself replied.

In fact he said "he had known himself for many years and had always found himself a most trustworthy person." (Laughter.) Green pleaded guilty at the Sessions, and the jury found that Rothwell had assisted him.

The evidence at the trial took up 270 pages of typewriting, and now the prisoner had written a document of wordshowing why he considered he had been wrongly convicted. But the Court were of opinion that he had been properly convicted.

It was worth consideration, added the Judge, whether notices should not be exhibited in cell to the effect that the Court would in proper cases exercise its power to increase a sentence for something must be done to put a stop to applications of this frivolous character.

In this case the prisoner had added six or eight weeks to his sentence, because it would date from that day instead of from the day of the conviction.

CHIC TOGET DRUNK.

MRS. ASQUITH'S CHARGE AGAINST YOUNG PEOPLE.

The working of Prohibition in the United States was severely criticised by Mrs. Asquith, who told a Montreal audience how when landing in the United States she informed reporters that she thought Prohibition a good idea.

"I didn't know anything about it then," she said here. "After two weeks in the United States I think it abominable. These laws were made to be broken. Particularly at balls, young girls and young men now think it quite chic to become drunk."

"Without Prohibition laws there is less drinking in England than in the United States. Englishmen learned that they can shoot straighter, ride better, and play better cricket without drinking."

THE CROWN AGENT SYSTEM.

Some people pretend that mosquitoes have been cured more often and more steadily over a longer period of years than the Crown Agents have; but the best judges declare them mistaken. The mosquito is annoying, especially the malaria kind, and most Hongkong residents have suffered it; but if you desire to see the old hand flush with anger, to see his eyes harden in rage, and to hear real eloquence in denunciation, your best plan is to mention the Crown Agent system. It is periodically attacked by the Chambers of Commerce. The newspapers are said to keep denunciatory articles about it standing in type. Yet through the years it carries on, providing snug jobs for a score of promoters of the Secretary of State for the Colonies, a modestly paid official, who is only one instance of the system. The Colombo, Singapore, Penang, and Hongkong Chambers of Commerce have been at it again, and more. For the Crown Agents services, such as they are. They are slow. They are red-tape. They frequently pretend that they know what the customer wants better than he does himself. And they seriously augment the cost of goods ordered through them. When the railway to Canton was building, it was discovered, and announced, that the Chinese for their section were getting identical materials from the same makers at the same time for far less than Hongkong was having to pay. They bought from the makers; we ordered through the Crown Agents.

The Government should get all its stores through local tenders in open competition. It would then be able to check quality, etc., and save much money to the taxpayers. The Crown Agent system is really a legalized, licensed form of "squeeze."

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The Sanitary Board meets tomorrow afternoon.

Entries close at 6 p.m. on Thursday for the 120 yards hurdle event in the Victoria Recreation Club's annual sports on Saturday next.

It was announced in Canton yesterday that several hundred cartons of opium seized by the customs would be publicly burned this morning.

Injured through the dynamite charge he was preparing exploding prematurely, a contractor's cook was removed to hospital from a hill above Wongneichong Road on Saturday. His wounds are serious.

Fired broke out on Saturday evening in a Shanbeh Street market occupied by the foreman of the Ying Kee building contractor firm. After causing slight damage the flames were put out by the inmates of the shed.

Mr. Wei Hender, the popular "jazz king," whose playing has been a feature of the Hongkong and Repulse Bay Hotel's tea and dinner dances for the past twelve weeks, leaves the Colony for Shanghai on May 4.

"Half a Chance," the Coronet Theatre's special feature attraction, will be screened for the last time this evening. At the Kowloon Theatre "A Perfect Crime" will show again this evening and a fan-dance dance will be held to-morrow night.

A rice laden truck driven by four coolies collided with a private motor in Queen's Road West yesterday afternoon, causing damage which the owner, Mr. Chan Chong, a Queen's Road West broker, estimates at $50. The rice coolie was bruised about the legs.

The Services for students to be held in the Rhenish Mission Church every Sunday, has been changed from 4 p.m. in the afternoon to 7.30 p.m. in the evening. Mr. N. Teasdale Mackintosh will preach on "The Pagan Anti-Christian Manifesto," and Miss Mow Fung has kindly consented to sing on "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross." There will be an orchestra by the undergraduates of the University present. They public is cordially invited to attend.

PAVILION CONCERT.

POPULAR AND CLASSICAL MUSIC.

Fully two hundred people were present in the Prince's Pavilion yesterday afternoon for the first Sunday afternoon orchestra concert organized by Hongkong Amusements Ltd., entirely in aid of the Hongkong Society of St. Vincent de Paul for which a collection was made during the afternoon. The programme of popular and classical music submitted by the combined orchestras of the Coronet and Kowloon Theatres, under the baton of Professor Emilio Ambrosio was received with evident enjoyment and there was more than one demand for encore. The concert was therefore instrumental in giving a very fine afternoon's entertainment and adding materially to the funds of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul to which the proceeds from the sale of programmes also go.

The programme was as follows:—
1.—Overture—"Morning, Noon and Night in Vienna," Suppe.
2.—Suite—Scenes Alsaciennes—J. Massenet. (ii)—Dinamichi. (iii)—An Cabaret. (iv)—Sons of the Hills. (v)—Dinamichi. (vi)—Polka-Milite. (vii)—F. Chopin. (viii)—Trio. (ix)—G. F. Paganini. (x)—Altura; violin—Mr. F. Bernardino; and cello—Mr. C. Bernardo.
3.—American Sketch—"Down South"—W. H. Meddleton.
4.—Dance Macabre, C. Saint-Saens.
5.—Hungarian Rhapsody No. 1 in F Minor, F. Liszt.
6.—Grand Selection "Tannhauser," L. Wagner.

ELIOT HALL DINNER.

HONGKONG UNIVERSITY.

The students of Eliot Hall held their annual dinner on Thursday April 20, in the dining hall of the hotel. The approach by the path from Lyttelton Road was marked by red lanterns, and the illuminated letters "E.H." were fixed high up the hostel. The dining hall was tastefully decorated with festoons of leaves, flags, plants and red lanterns. A stage was erected at one end for the concert which followed the dinner.

The guests included the Vice-Chancellor (Sir William Brunyate, K.C.M.G.) and Lady Brunyate, Mr. J. R. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Kotowal, the Wardens of the other hostels of the University and their wives, many members of the University staff and their wives and a large number of the friends and relations of the students including Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Lee, Miss A. Kwok, and Mrs. Ho Shao. Altogether one hundred and thirty three people were present. This is a first occasion on which ladies have been present at a hostel dinner and it therefore marks a new page in the hostel life of the University.

Just before dinner, Lady Brunyate, in a special speech, opened the hostel reading room, which had been tastefully furnished and decorated.

The Warden (Mr. J. Ring) who presided, proposed the toast of The King, the President of China, and The University.

Sir William Brunyate in proposing the toast of Eliot Hall, congratulated the hostel students on their new reading room themselves. He said he was sorry that the University was unable to do it for them but he was in the unfortunate position of a Vice-Chancellor trying to run a University without sufficient money.

Sir William Brunyate congratulated the hostel upon its decorations, and also upon the manner in which it carried out during the strike. He spoke in so far as it drew the students together more than ever before.

The Warden, replying, said that in the past Eliot Hall had confined its attention to scholastic achievement, and with no little success, but it was now developing wider interests. Eliot Hall now aimed at turning out not only men with trained minds, but men with patric spirit and healthy bodies too. He referred to the smooth working of the hostel during the strike thanks to the sound organization of the hostel committee, the good spirit displayed by all the students, and the success of those chosen as cooks. Mr. Ring then spoke of the reading room which had been furnished from a fund subscribed by the hostel Patron, Sir Charles Pilot, K.C.M.G., the graduate, all the present members of Eliot Hall and many friends.

The hostess (Mrs. Chis Shih Ching) then proposed the toast of "Our Guests" coupled with the name of Mr. J. R. Wood. He remarked the great pleasure it gave the members of Eliot Hall to have lady guests with them that night, and said that the precedent thus created in hostel life was a fitting one now that women have been admitted into the University. Mr. Chis said that an era was dawning in China when women would no longer be excluded from the councils of men, and occasions such as these. He then referred to the various official guests. Mr. Chis said: "We are proud to have our Vice-Chancellor in our midst, he has taken part in so many of our activities that we have come to regard him as part of ourselves."

Mr. J. R. Wood then replied in fitting terms. The guests then withdrew to the reading room while the dining hall was transformed into a concert hall. This was done in the space of ten minutes by the students.

A very successful concert followed in which Miss Evelyn Lee gave a charming Butterfly dance, which earned cordial applause. Mrs. Rose Wong gave a most pleasing interpretation of Pachelbel's Prelude, which gained warm praise. Mr. J. Day's "Imitations" as a small girl and different animals were greatly appreciated. Messrs. C. Z. Ma and Y. C. Chiao gave a performance of military common in Northern China, but new to University performances. It occasioned much merriment and applause. The programme concluded with a Mandarin song by Messrs. W. E. Chong and T. K. Kwok accompanied by Mr. C. Z. Ma. This also gained much applause.

BOWEL COMPLAINT IN CHILDREN.

During the summer months the children are subject to disorders of the bowels and small intestine, the most common of these is the so-called "summer complaint." It is noticed in children of all ages and is due to a combination of factors, such as overeating, indigestion, and the use of cold drinks.

ANNUAL DINNER.

The Queen's College Old Boys Association held their second annual reunion dinner in the College Hall on Saturday evening. There were present over three hundred old pupils of the College, representing every community in Hongkong and it was a very happy gathering. The Hall was prettily decorated with Japanese and Chinese lanterns and flags.

Mr. R. J. Remedios, a scholar in 1872, was given the honour of ringing the school bell to announce dinner.

Sir Robert Ho Tung presided. The Headmaster, Mr. B. Tanner, took the place of honour on the right. Others present included Dr. C. C. Wang, and Messrs. Lo Cheung Shiu, R.E.O. Bird, Kau Tong Po, Wong Ping Sun, U. Rumpah, H. K. Harg, S. M. Churn, F. J. de Rome, In Ku In, J. C. Barretto and C. G. Anderson (Honorary Secretary).

An excellent dinner was served by the Hongkong Hotel, supplemented by a generous supply of champagne supplied by Mr. Lee Hyson.

At one end of the Hall was a stage for the capital concert which followed. Those who contributed musical and other items were Dr. C. C. Wang and Messrs. E. J. Edwards, W. L. Handyside, J. C. Fletcher, A. d'Arculi, Chea Man Chan, Leung Kam Fong, Pun Tat Tat and Tam Wing Kwong.

After the toast of "The King" and "The Republic of China," proposed by Sir Robert Ho Tung and Mr. Rumpah respectively, had been enthusiastically honoured, Sir Robert Ho Tung said that his only claim to the chair was that he was an old student of the Government Central School, since known by the more appropriate name of Queen's College. It was a great thing to be long to that vast army of students who had passed through the portals of that great institution. (Applause.) He spoke of it as great because it had not been given to the lot of every student to pass through the University, especially when they carried their memories back to 30 or 40 years ago, when they were less fortunate than those who had come after them. As compared with the present day intellectual equipment of Queen's College, and the curriculum of its higher studies, aiming as it did at reaching the standard of University education, the opportunities for the old scholars were very small indeed; but it spoke much for such men of undying fame in the Colony as Dr. Steward, Dr. Falconer and Dr. Wright, that their output of students were men of whom no school or academy institution need be ashamed. The Central School or Queen's College had produced men who in a sense had contributed to shape the destiny of that vast country on the threshold of which they stood in this wonderful little Colony. (Applause.) Through the length and breadth of China students of that great educational institution of Hongkong had occupied and were occupying positions of honour, of trust and of responsibility. (Loud applause.) In the Legislative Assembly of the Colonial Government, their fellow students had taken their honoured seats. (Applause.)

Proceeding, Sir Robert said that truly it had been said that Queen's College was the intellectual theatre of China through whose agency hundreds and thousands of young men were made proficient in order to carry with them the torchlight into modern learning might not have penetrated. (Applause.) Queen's College had exercised an important influence in the past in enlightening China as no other educational machinery had as yet done in the present day. (Applause.) They might claim to have been pioneers of modern education in China. They had set an example for others to follow. He wished to impress upon them above all things to live up to their best traditions as becoming loyal citizens of this great Colony. (Applause.) They had a duty to perform as subjects of a King whose beneficent rule extended to the confines of an Empire in which the sun never set. Patriotism to the country of one's birth was a virtue worth cultivating but let those who had sought the hospitality of these shores, whether for the purpose of trade or for personal motive, remember the moral obligation imposed upon them as peaceful residents. (Applause.) and gratitude for the protection afforded them for their lives and properties. (Loud applause.) Love of country demanded of them that sense of duty that would direct their action for the good of China, which they might help to secure in order to lead China to the forefront in the comity of nations. While biding their energies to this end, let all of them remember their duty to the Government and the nation under the jurisdiction of whose flag they lived in peace, comfort and content. (Applause.)

In conclusion, the Chairman expressed the hope that if his remarks could be used as an opportunity for all old boys of Queen's College as a body to pledge in their own minds loyalty to their country and obedience to its laws, then he would say the lessons that had been imparted to them by their teachers and those who had the charge of their children to-day would not have been taught in vain. (Loud applause.) Sir Robert Ho Tung then asked the gathering to join him in drinking to the prosperity of Queen's College and its staff, coupling with the toast the name of Mr. Tanner. The toast having been enthusiastically honoured, Mr. Tanner, Headmaster, said that it had been a matter of the greatest gratification to him to note that the actual formation of the Association, so long talked of and considered, should have taken place during his tenure of the Headmastership of Queen's College. (Applause)—and it would be a source of equally great gratification to him to feel that he should in a small measure have been responsible for that inception. (Loud applause.) Drawing out or two comparisons between the difference in the conditions existing at Queen's 15 or 20 years ago with present conditions, to one knowing the old conditions and visiting the School to-day perhaps the feature that would strike him immediately would be that resulting from the introduction of an age limit for each of the classes, so that they no longer had men of 22 years or more sitting and working in the junior classes with boys of 12 or 13. Then with regard to the standard of work, in the old days it was considered very creditable, and justly so considering the means at their command, to prepare a small proportion of the senior boys in the College for the Oxford Local examinations. It was now a standing rule of the College that every boy in the Senior Form should enter for the Matriculation or the Senior Local examination of the Hongkong University, and that in the next senior form every boy should sit for the Junior Local examination and would not be entitled to promotion until he had succeeded in passing that examination.

Again in sport the development had been enormous. The whole staff were, both in work and games very much alive to the necessity and importance of keeping up the old traditions of the School. After referring to the lamented demise of Mr. Kong Kie-ai, "a very enthusiastic and popular master" of the College, the speaker thanked members of the Committee of the Old Boys' Association for their kindness in providing means during the past year for the supply of literature for the Chinese section of the School library, and for various prizes and subscriptions to scholarships. Regarding ways in which members of the O. B. A. might evince interest in the present generation of Queen's College, they should attend in large numbers with their families the annual prize-giving in January, and the annual athletic sports of the school, the next meeting of which, the seventh of the series, was to be held on the College grounds on Tuesday.

Mr. Tanner then proposed a toast for the continued and increasing success of the Q.C.O.B.A.

The toast was honoured with great enthusiasm.

Mr. C. G. Anderson, Secretary of the Association announced that the total membership of the Association was 550, as compared with 275 when the annual dinner was held last year. The increase represented the success of the membership campaign, in which Mr. Chow Ping wong achieved the remarkable feat of enlisting more members than all the others put together.

At the same time he felt it his duty to state that the number of life members was not so large as it should be and that the Association was not receiving from certain quarters that support and encouragement which they were led to expect from those who owed their all or almost their all to the free education instilled by it. However, the Union was hopeful of realising future support from this quarter.

When the possibilities of their common effort were firmly grasped and willingness to take a hand permitted the Association not only should they live up to their objects but a potent force for the furtherance of Anglo-Chinese co-operation would be created—Anglo-Chinese co-operation that was necessary, now more than ever, for the prosperity of this Colony and the well-being of its inhabitants. (Applause.) Mr. Kay proposed the health of Mr. Anderson.

The response was very hearty.

A PARENT'S DUTY.

YOUR boy is always getting scratched or bruised or twisted. Because these things have to be done right is no reason why always will. Get a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and use that very first injury is cured. It is immediately effective in all cases of cuts, bruises, and sprains. It is so dangerous a disease to that it is cured by all chemists and Storekeepers.

Climbing over the gate at the head of the stairs, a Chinese child in a Queen's Road West house on Saturday afternoon fell from the top to the first-floor landing, receiving injuries which were so dangerous a disease to that it is cured by all chemists and Storekeepers.

CANTON LEADERS.

GENERAL CHAN KWING-MING RESIGNS.

DR. WU TING FANG NEW CIVIL GOVERNOR.

DR. SUN YAT SEN'S PLANS.

With the return of President Sun Yat-sen to Canton, it is announced that General Chan Kwing-ming has resigned the posts of Civil Governor of Kwangtung and Commander of the Kwangtung Troops. Dr. Wu Tingfang, the Minister of Foreign Affairs has been appointed. Kwangtung Civil Governor in addition to his other duties and the post of Commander of the Kwangtung Troops has been abolished. A presidential mandate placing General Chan Kwing-ming's naval and military forces under the direct control of the Generalissimo.

There have been rumours of friction between President Sun and General Chan, but to-day's Canton Times declares that "there has been no serious difference" between them. General Chan "has always been a loyal follower of Dr. Sun. On the approach of the troops of the Expeditionary Army it was agreed upon by the military officers that in order to avoid any misunderstanding on the part of the public, and also for the purpose of preventing friction between the soldiers of the several commands, Gen. Chan's troops would withdraw from the city and await orders to go to the front."

"Though General Chen has not as yet accepted his new command it is expected that he will do so. General Ngai Bong-ping is now placed in charge of the city and is responsible for its peace and order."

"There has been no clashes between the Cantonese forces and there is little likelihood of anything of that kind occurring, for, everyone realizes it would be detrimental to the interest of the cause if the Cantonese were to quarrel among themselves."

The Canton press adds: "The separation of civil from military affairs is now an accomplished fact. General Chen tendered his resignation as Minister of Interior, Commander-in-chief of the Kwangtung Army and Governor of the Province, some days ago. President Sun accepted his resignation from these various positions but retained General Chen as Minister of War. As a successful leader, General Chen's presence with the Expeditionary Army at the front will be most valuable to the Constitutional Cause."

President Sun Yat-sen returned to Canton yesterday morning accompanied by Mrs. Sun and his staff. As the gunboat "Kiang-han" and the pleasure launch "Chu Kiang Yih Yip" came alongside of the Government wharf a tremendous cheer went up from the mass of people who crowded all the available space in the vicinity of the wharf and lined the streets along the President's route. President Sun, who was attired in his customary simple civilian suit, smiled his acknowledgement to the crowds.

After shaking hands with the officials, prominent merchants and representatives from the various organizations, President Sun stepped into his motor car and was driven to the Bureau of Foreign Affairs where he will make his temporary headquarters as the reconstruction of the Presidential Building has not been completed.

During the next few days the President will devote his attention to provincial matters and work out the final preparations for the Northern Expedition.

It is reported that the ex-governor, General Chen Kwing-ming, will lead the First Army of the Northern Expedition in person. The Canton Times adds that on retiring from the civil governorship of the province, General Chen Ching-ming returned to his native village in Waichow last Saturday morning to visit his mother and relatives before he leads the First Army of the Northern Expedition to the northern front. In order to discuss with General Chen military plans of the coming expedition the President has sent two officials, Mr. Kuo-Yingfan, Commissioner of the Provincial Civil Affairs, and Gen. Lo Yih-chun, the newly appointed Commander of the Kwangtung Gendarme force to Waichow to request the Minister to return to Canton immediately.

GENOA OPTIMISM.

London, April 22nd.

Mr. Lloyd George's optimism is generally regarded as justified by the terms of the Russian and German replies, which have greatly eased the situation at Genoa. The prospect of a settlement with Russia is very bright as a result of Moscow's changed attitude.

Papers like the Times and Post are still wary of the situation and the French Press is demanding the annulment of the Russo-German treaty, but most organs of British public opinion take a more moderate view of the situation. Perhaps the most significant fact is that the Russian note is the only document of the conference which is not a mere repetition of the German position. It is believed now, therefore, that there is no insurmountable obstacle to the successful issue of the Conference. German proposals to prevent exclusion from the political commission to cancel the Russo-German treaty, which the German note demands, are still in the air. It is still expected that in certain quarters that some form of Russo-German military agreement or understanding has been concluded, though Mr. Rostkow's emphatic denial of the existence of such an agreement.

Paris, April 21st.

The French delegation at Genoa has written to Signor Facta protesting against the terms of the Russo-German treaty and asking Signor Facta to summon a meeting of the nine signatories of the Allies Note to Genoa.

After a morning of uneventful work by the Commission, the afternoon session of the Russo-German conference which expressed the opinion that the Russo-German incident was closed as Germany had accepted one of the alternatives laid down by the powers, a bombshell was thrown at the Conference in the afternoon by the abrupt announcement that the Russian delegation had addressed respectively to the secretariat of the Conference and the Allied Governments declaring that the Russo-German treaty is a violation of the Canner resolutions and the Treaty of Versailles. The Russian delegation, however, was truthful and said it was therefore incompatible with the dignity of the Allies to collaborate any longer with the Germans.

The sub-committee on Russian affairs is demanding an immediate meeting of the plenipotentiaries of the Allies to discuss the situation.

Berlin, April 22nd.

An official statement categorically denies existence of a Russo-German Military convention.

Genoa, April 22nd.

Ten powers met this afternoon at the M. Barthelemy's residence to discuss the Russian protest mentioned in an earlier cable.

Mr. Lloyd George said he regarded the German reply as honestly conciliatory, and as constituting a complete acceptance of one of the alternatives mentioned in the note sent to Germany on the 15th inst. He did not think there were material differences between the original alternative and the form in which Germany had accepted. Germany was now excluded from the discussion of the Russo-German treaty, but he did not know any other important matter regarding Russia which the commission had to discuss.

The meeting finally unanimously decided to send a reply to Germany which it would be assumed that the German acceptance fully covered the ground intended to be covered in their letter of April 16th.

Dr. Wirth, addressing the German colony at Genoa last night said the Russo-German treaty broke the chains of financial slavery menacing Germany. Germany refused to annul the treaty but was ready to incorporate it in a general wider agreement.

The French delegation raised the subject of the Russo-German treaty, and the Russian delegation of the London experts reported that they would not examine the document until it had passed the sub-committee. Mr. Lloyd George understood the document to be unofficial; it had not been communicated to the Conference. He had seen it and was not surprised. He wanted to get on with the work of the Conference; otherwise he would have to explain to the British Empire and the world the cause of these crises.

The delegates meet again tomorrow.

At the outset of the Russo-German Affairs Sub-Committee, Mr. Seydoux, acting on instructions from M. Barthelemy, declared that he could not continue to sit, owing to the repudiation by the Russians of a memorandum which he had drafted in the name of the Russo-German treaty.

The Chairman (Sir W. H. R. Evans) declared the sitting closed.

The Russian delegation immediately announced the withdrawal of the memorandum to which exception had been taken, pointing out that their intention had been misunderstood.

London, April 22nd.

The Daily Mail's Genoa correspondent asserts that unpublished clauses of the Russo-German treaty pledge Germany to pay in kind £20,000,000 for value received during the German occupation of the Ukraine, to suppress all counter-revolutionary organizations on German territory, and not allow war material to be sent through Germany to the Border States, while Russia grants Krupp concessions for the manufacture of war material at a number of factories in Russia.

Genoa, April 22nd.

After a day of alarm at Genoa, matters have been calmed as a result of the Allies meeting at which Mr. Lloyd George protested against these daily crises.

The Franco-German trouble, however, drags on. The latest development is that Herr Wirth has written to Signor Facta protesting energetically against the words, "lying accusations," in the French letter already mentioned, as being contrary to the spirit of the Genoa Conference. It is hoped that things will be patched up at tomorrow's meeting, enabling the Conference on Monday to start its real work on economic questions, but much bitterness is still manifest in Paris, threatening still to clog the wheels, if not to nullify the Conference. A hopeful sign is that the Russian manifesto, anxiety to prevent a breakdown, has been accepted and is paid to the Italians who are described as veritable apostles of conciliation.

London, April 22nd.

Sir Robert Horne, who has arrived back to London to prepare the Budget, expressed satisfaction that most important steps in rehabilitation of Europe's finance had been taken at Genoa.

It is reported that a treaty has been signed between the Vatican and Russia, permitting the entrance of Jesuits and Franciscans for educational and other purposes.

Paris, April 22nd.

It is reported from Genoa, that the experts' sub-committee, considering the Russian note, has unanimously decided on the British delegate's suggestion, not to grant the Russian demand for immediate de jure recognition, in exchange for Russia's recognition of her debts.

There was a remarkable gathering aboard the Italian battleship Zante (lighter), when the King entertained the delegates at luncheon. M. M. Krasin and Chicherin were among the delegates and his Majesty conversed most amiably with them. The Russians were dressed conventionally, and their bearing was strictly diplomatic. Mr. Lloyd George sat at the place of honour on the King's right, M. Barthelemy being on his Majesty's left. There were 170 guests.

TO PREVENT RHEUMATISM

When the general health is broken down, if conditions are favourable for the development of rheumatism, it is very liable to develop. Without these conditions, however, it is not possible to prevent the disease.

The best treatment for rheumatism is rest and the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. This is to restore and retain a high level of general health. Then nature corrects the disease.

With these facts in view, it is easily seen how Dr. Williams' Pink Pills prevent and relieve rheumatism. They tone up the blood and nerves and maintain the general health. Taken after rheumatism has developed they begin at once to rebuild the blood, to restore its broken-down cells, and to directly combat the disease. External applications are never effective in the treatment of rheumatism because the disease is in the blood and must be fought there.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are sold by all druggists, or direct from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 96 Southview Road, Shanghai, at $1.50 per bottle, $8.40 for 6 bottles, post free.

CHINA

London, April 22nd.

Discussing the triangular duel in China in the Observer, Mr. J. P. Bland says the play is the same grim, old struggle for place, patronage, and power which has been played from time immemorial around the capital of China, when a strong hand and established authority are wanted. Mr. Bland refers to the "three political adventurers" who are at present most conspicuous in disputing the right to misgovern and plunder the country, and declares that as far as the country at large is concerned, it matters little or nothing whether Chang Kai-shek or Sun Yat-sen or both, for none of the present group of world-planning warriors possesses qualities and prestige sufficient to enable him to lead to fill the position of dictator and re-establish Peking's authority over the provinces. He predicts that the final settlement of the present crisis will be reached not by the ordeal of battle but by dollar diplomacy, decorously conducted by sleek, public mandarins. Meanwhile, he says, civil war continues a lucrative profession as times go, for those who follow it at a safe distance.

London, April 22nd.

A request by the Chicago Tribune for a statement, evoked a telegraphic message from Sun Yat-sen to Krasin, as his expedition was starting northward, saying that China will be reunited this year and civil supremacy will be established over military authority. Japan's ability and power to prosecute her policy of ascendancy in China has been increased, not diminished, by the Washington Conference, as American naval power has been eliminated. This may well have an adverse effect on China.

Continuing Sun Yat-sen asserts that the movements for the unification of the country under his leadership is daily gaining strength, and can greatly be hastened by the withdrawal of the foreign powers of recognition from the Peking Government, the continuance whereof renders his northern expedition necessary.

ENGINEERS DISPUTE.

London, April 22nd.

An attempt to re-open negotiations by the Engineering Employers' Federation with representatives of forty-seven unions allied to the Amalgamated Engineers Union finally broke down to-day. The unions publish the correspondence since the 20th inst., including a threat by the employers on the 21st inst. to cancel the suspension of lock-out notice. The unions declare that the employers are seeking to force the unions to accept greater managerial control than they agreed to on March 14th and April 1st. They describe the new conditions as unacceptable.

London, April 22nd.

The Engineering Employers' Federation has instructed its members to put the lock-out notice into operation. This means that 80,000 employees will be idle in a week's time. The Amalgamated Engineers Union already out.

FUN AND FROLIC.

SATURDAY NIGHT'S BALL.
A DISTINCT SUCCESS.

Not even the brilliant function given there in honour of the Prince of Wales surpassed in animation or sartorial magnificence the spectacle which drew gaping crowds around the doors of the Pavilion on Saturday night. The occasion was the ball masque which the Ex-Active Servicemen's Association organised and a signal success it proved. To greet the Prince there may have been half a dozen knights, an Admiral and a General or two but the company on Saturday night included Roman Emperors, Greek Goddesses, Malay Rajahs, Arab Sheikhs and gorgeously apparelled representatives of Marching Royalty. There was a Knight, too—a "Knight of the Bath" he was, with a nailbrush for necktie, and a Prince or two as well, notably the Prince of Darkness.

To hold in the memory the details of the half a thousand costumes which went to the making of Saturday night's kaleidoscopic pageant would be an impossible feat but there were some which specially impressed. There was, for instance, the well-known tapman who, attractively camouflaged as a Kodak girl, collected "glad eyes" wherever he went; there was a ferocious looking cave man and an equally desperate edition of Captain Kidd; prepossessing Chinese girls revealed unexpectedly masculine features when the time came to unmask and old Rip Van Winkle woke up to foot it as nimbly as the youngest of them.

For once there was a notable scarcity of pierrot costumes. Everyone seemed to have feared that everyone else would go in a pierrot costume and to have made a special effort to think out something different. There were plenty of Chinese get-ups of all grades from chair coolies, two of whom carried in a christy minstrel and deposited him on the dance floor, to mandarin and a resplendent figure in a brass helmet. And last, but not least, there was

Mr. Percy Smith who, on the authority of a notice pinned on his back, was disguised as a penny balloon.

Altogether it was a very splendid revel which well fulfilled the prediction on the preliminary posters that "to-night we'll merry merry be". It was an excellent advertisement for the Ex-Active Servicemen's Association because it demonstrated that it is possible for a function of that sort to be free and easy without being vulgar. One heard it said on Saturday night that some people had stopped away because they thought that, the function, being an ex-active service affair, would be something of a "rough-house". That was an unfair and mistaken assumption for which they have collected just punishment by missing one of the gayest, happiest, most enjoyable occasions that Hongkong has seen for a long time.

Amongst those present during the evening were Sir William and Lady Brunyate and party, Major General Sir John Fowler and the Hon. Mr. Claud Severn and Mrs. Severn. The band of the King's Liverpool Regiment furnished the music; they played very well winning well earned compliments. The Hongkong Hotel did the catering and provided a tasty little supper.

Those generally responsible for the efficiently carried out arrangements were:—Lieut. W. St. A. Malletson V.C., R.N. (President of the Association), and Messrs N. Teeddale Mackintosh (Vice-President), H. W. Chaney, F. P. B. James, M.C., L. D. Martyn, H. J. Pearce, M.C., E. H. Wilson and J. E. Ollerton.

ATHLETICS.

ST. JOSEPH'S SPORTS.

SUCCESSFUL MEETING.

The St. Josephians held their seventh annual athletic sports meeting at the Racecourse on Saturday afternoon. Most of the pupils were present with their parents and friends. The weather was favourable, and the events were very keenly contested. The results for the long and high jumps both in the junior and senior classes were very creditable for schoolboys, as also were the times recorded in some of the running events. There were several invitation events for the children of other Catholic Schools in the Colony, an old boys' race, an open team race, and a Scout's race.

Bishop Pozzoni was early present, and the Hon. Mr. Claud Severn, Mrs. Severn and Mrs. Bullock arrived in time to see the team race, the scout's race and the tug-of-war. In the last named event, a team picked from the senior class opposed nine big boys from the rest of the school. The juniors put up a plucky struggle against the seniors and managed to haul them over the line in the first pull, but weight told against them in the next two and they slowly but steadily lost ground. There was a fine array of trophies which included several beautiful and costly Challenge cups presented by the Old Boys' Association, and past pupils in the Cable Companies and the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank, respectively. Sir Robert Ho Tung has promised another challenge cup for next year, so that the boys will have further inducement for keen competition.

At the conclusion, Mrs. Claud Severn distributed the prizes, after which she was presented with a fine bouquet of white English roses in a silver vase, with the College colours, by Miss Leticia M. Remedios, a niece of Mr. J. P. Braga (Honorary Secretary), who is on a visit from Shanghai.

Owing to the numerous events, the meeting ended in the dusk, so that speech-making had to be curtailed. Rev. Bro. Michael, the Director of the College, thanked Mr. and Mrs. Severn for honouring the meeting with their presence. The Hon. Mr. Claud Severn briefly replied. He congratulated Brother Michael on the success of the College during his first year of office. He hoped that the pupils would have him with them for a long time to come.

UNIVERSITY SPORTS.

AN ENJOYABLE MEETING.

The annual athletic sports meeting of the Hongkong University was held on the Institution's recreation ground, Pokfulam, on Saturday afternoon in the presence of a large gathering of spectators.

There was a lengthy and enjoyable programme. The competition was keen, and some very exciting finishes were witnessed. Several previous records were broken. Logard Hall was the most successful section taking prizes in most of the principal events. Amongst those present at the meeting were H.E. the Governor, Sir William and Lady Rees Davies, Sir Robert and Lady Ho Tung, Bishop Ponson, the Hon. Dr. Claud Severn and Mrs. Severn, Mrs. Bullock, Dr. Forsyth and the Rev. V. H. Copley Moyle.

At the conclusion Lady Rees Davies distributed the prizes. Sir William in a happy speech thanked the University for giving his wife the honour. Professor Redmond, in a short speech thanked Lady Brunyate for distributing the prizes, and the prize donors who had contributed the fine collection of trophies on exhibition.

RESULTS.

Following were the results:—

OBITUARY.

MR. W. C. D. TURNER.

The late Mr. W. C. D. Turner, whose death was briefly reported in our Saturday's issue, had been connected with the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank since 1899 when he was posted to the Bank's Singapore Office. From 1902 to 1919 he was with the head office in Hongkong and after that he filled responsible positions in the Bank's service at Canton, Shanghai and Saigon. He was sent to Amoy last March.

For nearly twenty years the late Mr. Turner had been a well-known and a popular figure in interport cricketing circles. On many occasions he had captained the Hongkong team and had very materially helped it to victory. He was a son of Major Turner, who went to Shanghai with the Hongkong team in 1892 and, with eight other members of the team, was drowned while returning aboard the ill-fated "Bokhan".

The deceased was about 45 years old and death, it appears, was due to typhoid fever. He leaves a widow and four children.

PAVILION DANCES.

TODAY AND TO-MORROW.

So that everyone who wants to jazz in the Prince's Pavilion before it is demolished may have a final chance to do so, special tea dances have been arranged for this afternoon and to-morrow afternoon, beginning at 5 p.m.

For this afternoon the Hongkong Hotel Company has very kindly promised its full band, and to-morrow afternoon their well-known jazz band is being supplied free of charge. On the latter occasion Mr. Will Hender, the Jazz King, is giving his services gratis. Messrs. H. H. and W. H. are printing the tickets free of charge and these can be obtained from Messrs. Moutrie or at the door. This admission will be 50 cents for each afternoon. Refreshments are to be served and catering arrangements are in the hands of Wiseman's Cafe. The proceeds are to go to the St. Dunstan's Home for the Blind.

High Jump.—1, S. O. Shahabudin (Logard); 2, T. S. Khoo (Logard); 3, J. S. Gaudar (Logard). Height: 5 ft. 3 in. Previous record: 5 ft. 2 in.
440 Yards (Open to the Colony).—1, G. Hyder (King's Regt.); 2, V. C. Bell, R.M. Submarine (L.S.). Time: 67.1/5 secs.

Half Mile (Old Students' Cup).—1, A. Hoalim (May); 2, D. Laing (Logard); 3, T. S. Wong (May). Time: 2 mins. 18.2/5 secs. Previous record: 2 mins. 24 secs.

THE economy of the Studebaker LIGHT-SIX is based on fact, not theory. The above average obtained under a variety of conditions—on dirt roads, over mountainous trails and through crowded city streets—is concrete evidence of its low petrol consumption.

The unusual economy of the LIGHT-SIX is due to its light, evenly-balanced chassis, and its patented Internal Hot-Spot, which is an exclusive Studebaker feature.

"CURLEW" WINS WITH DIVISIONS.

The Hong Kong Football League season was brought to a successful close on Saturday afternoon, when H.M.S. "Curlew" won the championship of both divisions. The club's performance was a very creditable one, and they had to encounter a number of strong opponents. It was a very narrow thing for them in both matches on Saturday, victory in each case depending on the only goal scored.

"CURLEW" RES. KING'S RES.

The two teams, the winners and runners-up of the second division of the Hong Kong League, respectively, played a very fine exhibition match together at 3 p.m. There was a large gathering of spectators.

The teams lined up as follows:

"Curlew": Hindle, Blegenfield and Fern; Robinson, Han and Haywood; Anderson, Hill, Henden, Knowles and Mitchell.

Kings: Placer, Rank and Griffiths; Jordan, Connolly and Barrett; Hill, Croft, Jones, Hart and Williams.

The heat of the sun was rather trying for the players, but nevertheless, the game was very keenly contested. The pace was very fast for the first 15 minutes of the game, but the players were forced to slacken afterwards. Although the game was none the less interesting and exciting for this, good football was made impossible by the heat. The players lagged as the game proceeded, and several good chances were missed. In the opening stages the exchanges were very even. Hands against Jones sent the ball well in, but Hare drove straight into Placer's hands. Placer saved beautifully, from a corner kick soon afterwards. The Soldiers were equally disappointed in front of goal at the other end of the field, the goalie coming out on top every time. At half time the score was 1-1.

It was much cooler at the resumption and the Soldiers attacked with renewed vigour. After being repulsed several times Anderson got well in and centred with a beautiful high shot. Hender just got his head to the ball as it descended and scored the only goal of the match, giving Placer no chance. The Soldiers spurred after this and kept the ball in their territory for a long while; Jones and Crotty played well together, but the goalie was too safe between the sticks to allow anything to pass him. The King's kept up the pressure, however, and made things hot for the Soldiers that they had to play the one back game to save themselves. Thus handicapped, the Soldiers could not get in without being offside, and were forced to admit defeat.

Referee: Mr. Moore.

"CURLEW" V. CLUB.

The first match in the first division of the Hong Kong League was played on the Club ground immediately following the second division match, and attracted a record crowd of spectators. Seating accommodation in the stand was fully taxed, and the ropes round the playing field were lined several deep every where.

The rival teams lined up as follows:

"Curlew": Hardy, Wetherby and Hooper; Dash, Wilson and Griffiths; Taylor, Dyer, South, Cook and Lamb.

Club: Rodgers, Gerrard and Lawrence; Weyman, Stewart and McPhill; McTavish, Forsyth, Begg, Kuhr and England.

Referee: Mr. Smith.

Linesmen: Mr. Hollands (Police) and Mr. Williams (R.C.A.).

"Curlew" kicked off and the Club immediately attacked. Weyman missed the net by a hair's breadth, and then the Club forced a corner. McTavish placed well and the ball dived in and out of the goalmouth very dangerously until the pressure was relieved by England being ruled offside. The Soldiers paid a flying visit to the other end and were given a free kick which Stewart cleared. Begg forced Hardy out to clear, and was soon back again, but this time Wetherby's shot behind. A. J. Gerrard sent the ball well in, but Gerrard beat Lamb and cleared. Begg at once cleared the ball, but was pulled up for offside, thus losing another good chance. Hardy was again required to run out to clear at the other end, and then the Soldiers stormed the Club goal but could not get home. The ball came with the force of a sledge hammer on the defensive, but Hardy cleared from England and Forsyth in quick succession. Kuhr received and beat Wilson in fine style. He passed to England, and the latter again missed. Cook broke away for the Soldiers and beating Gerrard, centred, but Lawrence turned the ball over for a corner. Lamb placed nicely and South braced to take the ball wide. Kuhr attempted a dribble past the goalie at the critical moment and a good chance was being given. Both sets of forwards continued to attack alternately, but could not get home for a long while, then Taylor taking a free pass from Cook towards the end of the match, shot hard towards goal. Gerrard failed to stop the ball and Rodgers finished and assisted the ball into the net. Loud applause rewarded this score, which proved to be the only one of the match, for although they tried hard, the Club could not equalise, and lost the championship by 1 goal to nil.

Enthusiasm at the end of the match was unbounded and several "Curlew" players were carried shoulder high to the Club maids.

THE PRESENTATION.

Awards to the four teams lined up in front of the stand and Mrs. Severn distributed the cups and medals to the winners and runners up in both divisions, and was herself presented with a bouquet tied with the colours of the Clubs by Miss McCubbin.

STAFF AND PUPILS V. OLD BOYS.

This annual match was played on the C. R. C. ground on Saturday afternoon. The Staff and Pupils scored an easy win by a margin of 63 runs. Batting first, the Old Boys were only able to compile 93 runs. The Staff and Pupils replied with 156, passing the Old Boys' score when the third wicket went down. De Rome and Edwards played well for the College and contributed 55 and 27 runs respectively. F. M. el Arculli was very successful in the bowling department, taking three wickets for only 11 runs.

YVANOVICH REGAINS CHAMPIONSHIP TITLE.

At the Victoria Recreation Club on Saturday evening, the Challenge round of the tournament for the Championship of the Colony was played between P. A. Yvanovich the winner of the tournament and A. J. Osmund, the holder of the championship title. The match, 1,000 up was played in two sessions. Yvanovich was in excellent form, and rarely missing a stroke, won comfortably by 1,000 to 732.

The first session opened at 8 p.m. Yvanovich got away at the outset with breaks of 21, 21, 21, 30 and 20, and with several other smaller breaks over 100, soon had 214 to his credit against his opponent's 78. Osmund asserted himself after this and gave his opponent a close run with breaks of 21, 36, 47 and 36, and adding a break of 21 soon afterwards, took the lead 394-321. Yvanovich continued to play sound billiards preferring a straight game to fancy strokes. He again forged ahead with breaks of 28 and 47, and keeping the lead to the interval, led by 20 points.

At the resumption Osmund settled down and was soon leading Yvanovich by 15 points. Then the latter scored a 21. He followed this up with an all-round break of 76 beating by 4 the previous highest break of the tournament compiled by L. A. Osmund, the champion's twin brother, and was again comfortably in the lead. Osmund could do nothing beyond an occasional 20 odd after this. Continuing to score consistently, Yvanovich reached 700 with a lead of 180. This lead was maintained for about half an hour, during which time Osmund struck an unlucky patch and could not make any material headway. His luck changed on reaching 600, and he succeeded in reducing the lead to 102. Yvanovich again came to the fore after this and the match became one-sided to the end. With breaks of 35 and 46, and several smaller ones, he reached 900 with Osmund at 736. Osmund seemed to realise the hopelessness of the struggle after this, and losing heart, missed several easy cannons. He was able to put up only one break of 14 in reply to Yvanovich's 36, and several twentys. When he reached 955, Yvanovich nearly won with a break of 43, but victory was deferred for only a minute, and he finished the match at his next visit to the table with a cannon.

The highest breaks of the match were:

Yvanovich—22, 21, 24, 30, 20, 28, 47, 21, 76, 32, 46, 35, 24, 43.

Osmund—21, 24, 35, 47, 36, 27, 26, 22, 31.

At the conclusion of the match, the prizes were presented by Mr. W. Logan, the acting chairman of the Club committee.

Mr. R. C. Wittichell, the hon. secretary in calling upon Mr. Logan to distribute the prizes said that owing to other engagements the Chairman (the Hon. Mr. Claud Severn) had been unable to attend, and Mr. Logan has very kindly consented to act on his behalf.

Mr. Logan before distributing the prizes, congratulated the champion and sympathized with the loser. The Victoria Recreation Club, was the only Club that could produce a billiard champion. He would like to see what the Hong Kong Club could do in this direction, but thought that Mr. Yvanovich would show any of their experts the way home. He thanked Mr. J. E. Rodger for his kindness in acting as umpire throughout the tournament.

The prizes were presented as follows:

The Challenge Cup (presented by the Club)—Winner, Mr. P. A. Yvanovich.

Winner of the Tournament (prize presented by Messrs. Nigel Cart, Gale and Charlton)—Mr. P. A. Yvanovich.

Prize for the runner-up (presented by Mr. Juro Matsumoto)—Mr. L. A. Osmund.

Prize for the highest break (presented by the Club)—Mr. L. A. Osmund.

A NAVAL MATCH.

"CARLEW" BEAT "HAWKINS."

At the Naval Canteen on Saturday afternoon, a very interesting billiards match was played between teams of six, representing H.M.S. "Carlew" and H.M.S. "Hawkins." The "Carlew" won after a very close struggle by a small margin.
